VOL. IX. NO. 264.

CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1903.

PRICE 5 CENTS

OFF FOR NEW ORLEANS.

Horsemen from these parts, contemplating spending the winter months and deriving a livelihood by racing their horses at the Crescent City, were astir early yesterday morning superintending the loading of their horses on the special train at the Worth track. A dozen Arms-Burton palace horse cars had been backed to the siding during the night and everything had apparently been put in readiness for an early start, but as is usual in cases of special horse trains, the actual departing time was nearly four hours later than the time scheduled. The usual excitement in evidence when a train of its kind leaves for New Orleans was in a measure lacking this year, this was chiefly on account of the absence of hangers-on about a racetrack, commonly known as "hustlers," who make an owner's life a burden at shipping time with petitions to be taken along. This year the Chicago season closed much sooner than formerly and consequently the wait for New Orleans' opening is much longer. The hustlers on that account found it much more to their interest to go to Latonia and put in a few weeks there, and then leave on the special which is billed to leave there. The owners who shipped their horses yesterday are the same ones in nearly every case that have heretofore made the Crescent City their headquarters in the winter. J. Arthur, J. U. Strode, E. Trotter, K. D. Orr, J. F. Davis, S. W. Streett and one or two others have always had the good fortune to get their fair share of the purses there, and this year should prove no exception. A complete list of the horsemen and the horses that left on the train follows:

Ed Trotter, owner and trainer—Charley Thompson, Scorpio, Arnold K., J. W. O'Neill, Count 'Em Out, Hedge and Lingo.

J. Arthur, owner and trainer; jockey, McIntyre—Bondage, W. J. Deboe, Huzzah, Belle Mahone, Little Elkin, Ralph Young, Shaitan, Tribune, Fullback, Frank M. and Oleometer.

S. W. Streett, owner and trainer—Port Royal, Big Ben, Birch Broom, Cardinal Woolsey, Leila, Birch Rod, Palmist, Ponca, Clarion, Trogon, Sir Launcelot, Patrician, Class, Mad Mullah, Haldene and Cyprienne.

K. D. Orr, owner and trainer; jockey Wolff—Albert F. Dewey, Nabockish, Fourleaf C., Fickle Saint and two two-year-olds.

B. Butler, owner and trainer; jockey C. C. Arnold—Emma A. M., Marco and Jack Doyle. W. M. Hedges, owner and trainer; jockey, H. Hall—Gregor K., Tayon and two two-year-olds.

J. Phillips, owner and trainer; jockey, H. Phillips—Sarah Maxim, Dutch Carter, Fake, Presbyterian and three two-year-olds. Jockey H. Phillips is now riding at Latonia, but will be in New Orleans in time for the opening.

W. M. Walker, owner and trainer—Omdurman, Mauser, Mary Moore, Compass and Anti Trust.

M. Sabath, owner; J. Clerico, trainer—Sidney Sabath and two two-year-olds.

J. F. Davis, owner and trainer; jockey, Stille—Luralighter, Lobbyist, Good Catch and Blue Darter.

J. H. McDermont, owner and trainer—Lampoon and Airlight.

C. Booker, owner and trainer—Custus.

R. M. Westerfield, owner and trainer; jockey, Munro—Ben Chance, Sarilla, Balm of Gilead and one two-year-old.

E. M. Vedder, owner and trainer—Goldaga and Prodgal Son.

J. U. Strode, owner and trainer; jockeys,

Davissou and Schilling—Maximus, St. Tammany, Josette, Begone, Lyman Hay, Amote, Max L., Henry of Trastamare, Lolly Daly, King Hammon and four yearlings.

H. T. Griffin, owner; H. McCoulsky, trainer; jockey, Wilkerson—Attila, Listaway, Floral King and two two-year-olds.

G. W. Poole, owner and trainer—Soldier of Fortune, Foresight and Gus Heidorn.

L. Marion, owner; W. W. Lister, trainer—Bluemint and Mayor Johnson.

T. Licalzi, owner and trainer—Pretorius, Safeguard and Jove.

Miscellaneous—Benson Caldwell, Pronta, Louis Kraft, Filly Deck, Oscar, Fairbury and a number of yearlings.

The train was switched from Worth to Grand Crossing, where a sleeping and buffet car were hooked on for the accommodation of the horsemen and their wives. The train is in charge of Harry White and will be met on its arrival in New Orleans by Secretary Clark, who will assign horsemen their quarters.

LATONIA GOSSIP.

In the steeplechase at Latonia Monday, Faraday, Jr., bolted at the third jump and scraped Monahan's leg so sharply that he pulled up and dismounted. At the last jump Triso fell, turned a complete somersault, rolled over on jockey G. Wilson, knocked out three of his teeth, cut his right eye and injured his hip. The horse was not hurt. He got up and galloped after the field, while the jockey was being carried off on the stretcher.

Several owners got in with their stables at Latonia Monday morning. Some few came from St. Louis, but the majority of them shipped here from the Worth track at Chicago. Among them were Frank Arthur, with Eva's Darling, Boundary and a two-year-old; James Arthur, with the three-year-old mare Ma'melle; C. K. Burdeau, with Hayward Hunter and Lou Woods; Mose Jacobson, with Premus and Addie Turnstall; Mose Goldblatt, with Jena, Brief, Rainland and Boaster; V. Hughes, with Tancred, Trocadero and two two-year-olds; S. E. Parmer, with Little Boy and Orderly; G. W. Scott & Co., with Tokalon, Apollonaris and Trompeuse; J. W. Fuller, with Alamode, John E. Owens, Captain Ham, Enverite, Voila, Don't Ask Me, R. F. Williams, and Aurita; H. J. Perry & Co., with Coruscate, Mandamus and Tribes; C. S. Brownell, with Nestoria; W. D. Twyman, with Ocean Dream, Dunganon and Beneficent, and J. J. McCafferty, with Thane, Alfred C., Frank Rice, Lighthunt, Firing Line, Mary McCafferty and Eda Riley.

Eight new books cut in at Latonia Monday, making twenty-two in the line, while two of the old ones went off. The new slates put up were those of Fred Cook, S. Everhardt, Sam Stephens, Dr. Rainey, Billy Huber, Fred Pesch and Frank Bain. Riley Grannan also cut in. Billy Coleman and J. K. Hughes went off.

Rome Respass was, until a day or so ago, undecided as to how best to winter Dick Welles. At the Woodlawn Farm a new barn has been erected in the place of the one destroyed by fire last winter, and for a time he was figuring on chancing the great colt in this structure with the balance of the string, but he has now decided to erect a concrete barn of one stall and quarters for an attendant, who will be with the champion constantly during the frozen period.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Winner—Ch. c. by St. George—Weknowit (trained by B. Littlefield). Went to post at 2:05. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second easily. Merry England, best and a coming crackerjack, ran into the lead at the start and, forcing a terrific pace throughout, came away decisively from Buttons right at the end. Excepting the last named, he had everything behind him beaten after going the first quarter. Buttons stamped himself far above the ordinary and, after getting away none too well, displayed amazing speed in running up into a close second on the far turn. He went wide on the turn as in his preceding race, but got down to steady and superlative good work in the long drive home. Gay Boy was outrun and at no stage able to get up into serious contention, tiring badly at the end and was driving to save third place. River Pirate got away badly and trailed far in the rear to the stretch, where he made up a lot of ground. Masterman fell completely out of the race early, moving up like a cyclone in the stretch run. Northern Star quit after a brief display of speed and can do better.

Merry England, show, 3 to 5. Buttons, show, 4 to 5. Gay Boy, show, 1 to 4.

Winner—Br. c. by G. W. Johnson—Virgie Johnson (trained by W. Karrick). Went to post at 2:35. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second the same. Akela quickly assumed command and led throughout, coming away gamely from the combined challenge of Gravina and Payne and is an improved colt. Gravina was shut off directly after the start by the winner and lost considerable ground. She held on, however, in a forward position to the stretch, where she came through in the middle and was completely hemmed in and pocketed in the next furlong, closing up fast when with clear sailing at the end and just getting up to save second place. Payne followed Akela closely throughout and but for swerving clear across the course under the whip in the last furlong would have been second. Nevermore finished very fast after having a rough journey in the early running. Rightful, suddenly improved, was shuffled back at the start and, making up a lot of ground in the stretch, finished a close up fifth. Nine Spot held on steadily throughout. Stonewall finished going great guns.

Corrected weights—Orloff, 94.

Winner—Ch. g. by Horoscope—Lady Invercauld (trained by J. Dillon). Went to post at 3:00. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second handily. Wizard showed phenomenal improvement in spite of his advantage at the start, where he beat the barrier four lengths. He made the most of his advantage and led all the way and, being partial to a long route, he managed to get home in front from the badly ridden and unlucky favorite. Dolly Spanker got away badly and was repeatedly crowded in the early running and in the closing drive. He was also hemmed in and never got clear sailing until in the last sixteenth, where he drew out like a flash and finished running faster than the winner. Monet, an improved horse and skillfully handled, steadily improved his position from a bad sendoff and put up a fast and game finish. Wotan had no mishaps and simply failed to stay. He was a prominent contender for six furlongs, tiring badly and swerving at the end. Pol Roger was shuffled out of it in the last quarter and was badly ridden.

Scratched—42561Grenade, 126; 42536Crown Prince, 104.

Corrected weights—Pol Roger, 98; Duncan, 95.

Overweights—Duncan, 4 pounds.

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, NOVEMBER 4 1903,

CONEY ISLAND STAKES.

To close for entries Monday, November 16, the premier racing organization of the east, the Coney Island Jockey Club, advertises in this issue of Daily Racing Form a truly grand list of stakes. They are the famous events that have served to put this liberal and progressive club in its present eminent standing and are annually solicitously coveted by turfmen of high and low degree alike. They deserve, and no doubt will receive, the patronage of every owner who possesses a thoroughbred concerning which he entertains hopes of future excellence. To win the Annual Champion, the Lawrence Realization, the Century, the Tidal or the Great Filly Stakes means the acquisition of a fortune in a few brief breathless minutes. The list now offered will be found in the advertising department of this issue. Commending them to the favorable consideration of all owners, Daily Racing Form will furnish entry blanks to all applicants.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

A special train, consisting of twelve horse cars and two sleepers, left St. Louis yesterday for New Orleans. The train is due to reach the Crescent City Thursday morning, at the same time the Chicago special arrives. H. McCoulsky, trainer for H. T. Griffin, leaves today for New York, where he goes to superintend the shipping of a car load of horses for New Orleans, belonging to his employer.
U. Z. DeArman delayed his departure for New Orleans on account of sickness among his horses. He has lost by death recently the two-year-olds Sir Walt and Panacea. Both were sufferers from lung fever. Palm Reader, which was cut down in his last race, is showing signs of recovery and DeArman has hopes of being able to send him to the post during the winter.

All the horses of R. Bradley were shipped yesterday to Benning, D. C. In the same car went King Ellsworth and Angelo, belonging to J. D. McMillan & Co.

Five car loads of horses were shipped Monday from Chicago to Memphis, Tenn. They were the property of M. H. Tichenor & Co., S. C. Hildreth, C. E. Mahone, C. K. Burdeau, J. Bright and B. Vincent.

Blue Mantle, which will be remembered by racegoers several years ago and which ran some creditable races, is now doing service in a huckster wagon near the Worth track and pulled many a load of stable paraphernalia to the special train yesterday.

AQUEDUCT FORM CHART--CONTINUED.

42603 GAVIOTA w 3 99 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 Roman'li Miss M Oliver 20 30 30 10
Time, 13.25, 49, 1:14, 1:39, 1:52.
Winner—B. g. by Stuyvesant—Garnet (trained by T. E. Healy).
Went to post at 3:25. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Carbuncle trailed the field to the stretch, where he came through next to the inside rail and rapidly overhauled the leaders, passing them in the last fifty yards and winning a lucky race. Stamping Ground held a forward position on the inside in the early running and to get clear sailing had to pull up and come on the extreme outside in the stretch run, thereby losing a lot of ground, then closed up with a rare burst of speed, decisively outstaying the leaders and Higgins, overlocking the winner on the inside, was unlucky to lose. Lux Casta ran lapped on Rostand for a mile and a sixteenth and, bearing out all through the stretch, seriously interfered with Stolen Moments and Stamping Ground, but sustained her speed with unexpected pertinacity and is evidently as good as ever. Stolen Moments showed indications of staleness, tiring badly in the last sixteenth. Rostand forced the pace for a mile and then gave it up. Gaviota, nearly left, palpably sulked throughout.
Overweights—Lux Casta, 3 pounds; Stolen Moments, 3; Rostand, 3; Gaviota, 2.
Carbuncle, show, even. Stamping Ground, show, even. Lux Casta, show, 6 to 5. Stolen Moments, show, 1 to 4. Rostand, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—B. c. by Rapallo—Garniture (trained by W. Karkick).
Went to post at 3:55. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Garnish ran a surprisingly good race, got away poorly and quickly raced up into a contending position and, taking the lead when straightened for home, he put up a remarkably game effort to the finish, where he decisively held his own. Dutiful displayed early speed and was quick to get into prominent contention, finished gamely on the outside and lasted long enough to save second place. Prince Salm Salm stayed unexpectedly well in the trying stretch drive and is a suddenly improved colt. Sonoma Belle, favored at the start and luckily placed throughout and with clear sailing on the outside, simply failed to make good, tired at the end and was under the whip for the last half. Raider made the running to the stretch and put up an unexpectedly game stretch run. Silverfoot, a grand looker, got away badly and had a rough journey.
Scratched—42538 Flag Officer, 108; 42587 Sir Carter, 105; 42587 Mr. Pickwick, 105.
Corrected weights—Gold Breaker, 105.
Overweights—Gansevoort, 5 pounds; Grand Vitesse, 1.
Garnish, show, 6 to 1. Dutiful, show, 2½ to 1. Prince Salm Salm, show, 6 to 5. Sonoma Belle, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—Ch. f. by St. Florian—Esther Cleveland (trained by A. Carter).
Went to post at 4:20. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Ella Snyder, lucky at the start and skillfully held together in the stretch, came away decisively at the end after a long effort in which a half dozen horses ran abreast the first quarter of the homestretch. The Guardsman practically forced the pace throughout, tiring right at the end and ran a game race. McWilliams, away poorly, steadily improved his position, finished fast and would have been second in another stride. Animosity, suddenly improved, closed a big gap after getting away poorly and was going fast at the end. Widow's Mite finished close up and ran a good race after having suffered interference in the last furlong. Mary Street failed to stay. Medal was overweighted and had no chance after getting away poorly.
Scratched—42405 Lady Potentate, 107; 39168 Burning Glass, 111; 42615 Nine Spot, 103.
Overweights—The Guardsman, 1 pound; Oclawaha, 1; Hot, 2; Medal, 1.

Winner—B. g. by Melodrama—Nita Yuma (trained by W. S. Trevis).
Went to post at 2:08. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. John Coulter was well rated, wore down Barkelmore and came away in the stretch without much effort. Olonetz lost ground on the turn for home, but finished fast and outgamed Barkelmore in the final drive. The latter showed speed, but tired at the end. Fleuron finished fast. Herodes showed early speed, but tired. Rathgar quit badly in the stretch run.

Winner—Ch. c. by Kantaka—Racemede (trained by J. W. Hall).
Went to post at 2:32. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Kilmorie began slowly, but came around the leaders on the far turn and wore them down in the stretch run, winning with something left. Sister Lillian, outrun in the first part of the race, came with a rush in the homestretch and caught Lady Matchless tiring. The latter ran to her best form. Mint Bed appeared the winner when turning into the stretch, but tired in the last furlong. Mosketo and Choice showed early speed. Boland was brushed off Briars in a jam at the start, which affected the chances of several horses. Briars ran away four miles and jockey Colvin was suspended for ten days for foul riding.

Winner—B. c. by Mirthful—Bermuda Dance (trained by R. T. McMillan).
Went to post at 3:00. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Bardolph was under restraint for the first half mile, made his move while rounding the turn into the homestretch, shook off Redan and Dan McKenna in the last furlong, but had to be hard ridden at the end to stall off Tam O'Shanter. The latter avoided the early fast pace and came with a rush at the end, after coming wide into the homestretch. Dan McKenna was tiring and had to do his best at the end to stand off Collonade's rush. He had all the worst of the weights and ran a good race under the circumstances. Collonade finished fast. Redan was eased up in the last hundred yards after showing the way to the stretch at a fast clip.
Scratched—42550 Miss Mae Day, 119; 41830 Glen Water, 112; 42543 Brulare, 109; 42556 Coruscate, 107; 42214 Ed Tierney, 90; (42600) Sanetomo, 85; 42587 Geranium, 82.

+Coupled in betting.
Winner—B. f. by Rough and Ready—Fatality (trained by W. E. Phillips).
Went to post at 3:32. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Determination was in a pocket for the first quarter and had to go around the leaders on the outside and came wide into the homestretch, but finished fast through the stretch and was going away at the end. Rainland was bumped into at the start, but finished very fast and just managed to get up in time to beat out Armor. The latter was much used in chasing Allista, but hung on gamely. Allista showed a good turn of early speed, but tired in the stretch drive. J. P. Mayberry ran well to the stretch. Cheboygan made up much ground from a poor sendoff.
Scratched—42457 Banwell, 100; 42525 Circular Joe, 95.
Overweights—Cheboygan, 1 pound; Harfang, 1.
Determination, show, 3 to 1. Rainland, show, 3 to 1. Entry, show, 4 to 5. Allista, show, 1 to 2. J. P. Mayberry, show, 4 to 5.

42624 FIFTH RACE—1 Mile and 70 Yards. Purse $500. 3-year-olds and upward. Handicap.
